DETAILED ACTION

1. This is the fourth office action for serial number 10/603,509. This application remains 8 pending claims. Claims 1, and 9-10 have been canceled.

Withdrawal of Finality

2. The finality of the previous action is withdrawn. Any inconvenience is sincerely apologized. Rejections based on Metelski follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 2-3 and 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US Publication No. 2002/0185583 to Metelski.

Matelski discloses a stand for a surgical microscope comprising a stand column (1a, 1b, 1c); a pivot arm (11a, 11b, 11c, 11d); a rotary bearing (32 for example) for mounting the pivot arm on the stand column; an electromagnetic brake (see German patent application 101 23 166.0 which is incorporated by reference herein. See also paragraph 007, page 2 of the specification) for locking the pivoting motion of the pivot arm in the rotary bearing; and a mechanical brake having adjustable braking force (screw 34) for braking the pivot arm in the rotary bearing. The mechanical brake includes a resiliently preloaded pin and a brake pad (33b) (Figs. 3-4).

As to claims 3, 5, 6 and 7-8 are also disclosed by Metelsk as evidently shown on Figs. 5-10.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 4 is objected to, but would be allowable if rewritten to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 2-8 have been fully considered but are moot in view of the new ground of rejection. The new ground of rejection is made in view of Metelski.

Conclusion

This action is made Non-Final.
